

OREMUS COMMUNICATIONS MAY 2018 NEWSLETTER

Happy Easter Everyone! The Easter Season is the greatest of all Feasts because it gives us a chance to be eternally happy with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Mary, the Mother of God, all the angels and saints. Everything else, including our problems, fears and concerns pale in comparison. We are so grateful and thankful that our Lord has come and saved us from our sins and their consequences.

Pope Francis, as usual, was quite busy in Rome with all of his Papal activities during Lent and Easter, but one these activities caught our attention. In a Papal letter, he asked us to pray extra hard for vocations after declaring the fourth Sunday of Easter, April 22nd as a World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We all know that the shortage of priests and religious in many areas of the world is alarming. Accordingly, Oremus Communications responded in our Family Rosary Program by praying extra hard on that date. We intend to continue praying extra hard on an ongoing basis so that we will always have enough priests, brothers and nuns to carry on the mission of the church. While we observed Easter Sunday on April 1st, on Friday, April 27th, we had a special guest on our Family Rosary Program, Mr. Massimo Paris, an expert in the Shroud of Turin and Charlie DeFeo, our frequent guest co-host, who offered us an insightful account of the history of the Shroud of Turin.

The month of May is now upon us, and we look forward to honoring our Blessed Mother through a variety of activities such as participation in the May procession on Sunday, May 6th at the Cathedral Basilica of SS. Peter and Paul, in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Next, we have Mr. Carl Malburg, Guardian of the International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima who will be in Saskatchewan, Canada calling in to the Oremus Communications Family Rosary Program (OCFRP) to give us the latest information about Our Lady of Fatima on Tuesday, May 15. On Thursday, May 31, on the Feast of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary, we are glad to welcome a new guest co-host to OCFRP, Rev. Msgr. John T. Conway, Pastor of Mary, Mother of the Redeemer Catholic Church in North Wales, PA, part of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Msgr. Conway will pray the Holy Rosary with us as well as share his reflections on the importance of the Easter Season.
